Sera Beak is a Harvard-trained scholar of comparative world religions who's spent the past 14 years traveling the world studying spirituality – from whirling with Sufi dervishes to meeting the Dalai Lama on her 21st birthday; from taking the host from a Croatian Catholic mystic who had the stigmata (truly) to having life-altering visions with shamans.

"Girlfriend, go see this woman! She's gonna trip up every idea you've got about the divine, help you go deeper, and if that weren't enough, she makes dancing sexy and holy at the same time." – Cristina Brandt, Lifecoach
